

8th Lean Digital Summit

7-8 October 2019, Paris

Learn from those who succeed in the Digital Era thanks to Lean Thinking. Join the conference to meet Lean and agile experts, to hear from-the-field Lean IT stories and to engage in interactive workshops. Meet the first speakers of the Lean Digital Summit 2019!

Yves Caseau, Group CIO
Michelin

Bianca Bowron-Cuthill
Head of Customer Success
Intuit

Pierre Masai, CIO
Toyota Motor Europe

Pamela Dukes,
Toyota Connected

Jesper Boeg,
Agile Upgrade

Marie-Pia Ignace,
Institut Lean France

The Lean Digital Summit is an initiative of Institut Lean France and the Lean Global Newtork.

Program and registration on www.lean-digital-summit.com

Lean Thinking for the Digital Era

In a context of disruptive changes and innovation, most markets are challenged by emerging competitors. Yet customers and employees still have high expectations in terms of user experience and work environment.

Join the conference to get inspiration from IT leaders who succeed in the digital era thanks to Lean Thinking.

What to expect?

Inspiration, learning, networking and practice

- Learn from those who Lean their IT departments
- Engage in interactive workshops
- Meet Lean Global Network experts
- Network with your peers

Who should attend?

- IT managers and executives in IT services, start-ups, IT departments of all sizes
- Lean/problem solving/continuous improvement leaders
- Change agents, Lean project leaders/coordinators

The Venue

The Lean Digital Summit will be held at Espace Saint Martin, in central Paris, near Beaubourg and Les Halles neighborhood. The venue is fully accessible to disabled persons.

Direct access to Espace Saint Martin by public transportation from CDG airport, and main railway stations Gare du Nord, Gare de Lyon.

Schedule and rate

9:30am to 5pm on 7 October
9:30am to 4:30pm on 8 October
The conference is in English.

Early bird rate until 1st July: 900€

Discount -20% for groups of 3 and up

Reserve your seat here

Rate includes access to keynotes and breakout sessions, lunch buffet, coffee breaks and first evening cocktail.

The full program will be available in May.

Check the website: www.lean-digital-summit.com for more details.

Register at early bird rate until 1st July.